Should Not Be The One To Your Property

It's wonderful to own property in the country and to enjoy the privacy that comes with rural living. But if you ever think about selling your land, you'd want to let as many people know about it as possible. The greater number of people that know about your property for sale, the better chance you have to sell your land for the price you want.

Farrell & Boswell Realty, L.C., has been in the business of marketing rural East Texas properties for over 30 years. We don't market homes in town, we don't sell commercial buildings, we don't develop industrial sites. We do only one thing – but we do it very, very well! We do country properties.

To help you better understand the sales process as a landowner in the rural market today, we would like to send you a FREE informational brochure highlighting key issues you'll want to consider. Just send back the attached coupon and we'll drop a copy in the mail to you – no obligation.
